WAR MEMORIAL MONUMENT QUERY

Member Roy A. Vail requested information concerning William W. VAIL on the War Memorial Monument standing before the Washington County Courthouse, Plymouth. The monument contains three names from World War I; 33 names from World War II; six names from Korea and five from Viet Nam - major conflicts involving America during the Twentieth Century, excluding the Persian Gulf Conflict.

Lawrence Swain provided the following information:

VAIL, Walter Wilber, TSGT, 13433119 - DOB 31 Jan 35 - DOD 28 Feb 68; Home of Record, Plymouth NC. Was, or should have been, the last name inscribed on the Monument.

"Of the persons consulted, none of whom recognized either name (William W or Walter Wilber) as being from this community. Mr. W. R. "Pete" Hampton, Mr. Edwin Norman, Mr. George Ayers and Mrs. Teadie Mae Ayers. Mr. George Ayers assumptions seem the most interesting. George has a feeling that this Veteran was likely a descendant of Mr. N. C. VAIL, who lived on Folly Road during his lifetime; that his daughter, Hope Vail, would most likely know the antecedents of this individual. Hope Vail's address is 3001 Bay View Blvd, Portsmouth VA 23707. Information about this monument or veterans' data might be addressed to Mr. Harold Woodley, Veterans Service Officer, Washington County Courthouse, Plymouth NC 27962.

COPY OF LETTER WRITTEN BY C. H. H. COLLINS
(Courtesy Martin County Historical Society)

Dear Elizabeth,

When I wrote to you I neglected to give you any of the history of the Collins family. In as much as most of the papers, letters, etc., held as heirlooms were in your Great Grandmother's trunk at your Uncle Tom's when house burned they were lost. I can only give such data as I remember from my parents and from what I gained from old letters read long ago.

However: My grandfather Collins was of Irish descent (as the name would indicate) was named Charles, was a sea captain and was lost with his ship or sloop at sea when my father was eight years old. My father was born Feb. 20th, 1819. His mother was Elizabeth Stubbs, daughter of a captain in the West Indies trade. His name was Isaac Stubbs - do not know his nationality. My father had two sisters older than he, and one brother younger. I used to correspond with his brother's children. There were four of Uncle Jesse's children - Lucy, Mark, Joe & Fanny - all of them younger than I except Fanny.

My father was born in Martin County near Williamstown, N. Carolina. He and my mother were married in Plymouth, Washington County, N.C. 1856. My mother was Mary Jane Harrison born near Plymouth, N.C. September 14, 1827. Her father was named George. He died when my mother was eleven years old at the age of 47 years. He had an uncle Elijah Harrison who inherited the property known as Lee's Mill - a very valuable property in those days. My grandmother Harrison's maiden name was Martha Draper (of English descent). My greatgrandmother Draper was Caroline Jones, sister of Capt Friley Jones, Capt. of Militia in the second war with Great Britian (sic) known as the war of 1812. Friley Jones left N.C. and settled at Huntsville, Ala. at an early date and was engaged in mercantile business - sold his business and bought a plantation near Livingstone, Madison County, Miss. before 1840. My mother's Aunt Penelope Draper married Downing Spruill near Plymouth, N.C. and they went in a wagon to Leake County, Miss 1828, where they acquired a large property. Before the war between the States they owned 6000 acres of land and 70 negros (sic).

I remember my mother's great uncle Friley Jones although he was nearly 90 - was tall, straight as a soldier and wore a "bee gum" hat. My mother's Aunt Penelope (Penny they called her) lost one eye in a runaway of their team on the way to Mississippi (sic). I remember her very distinctly as I was almost grown when she died.

Elizabeth this is rather rambling but about the best I can do from memory of data.

Love,

Granddad

SOLOMAN & ELIZABETH COOPER BATEMAN REUNION

The Roanoke Beacon reported the 63rd Annual Reunion of descendants of Solomon and Elizabeth (Betsy) Cooper Bateman on 5 Sept. 1993. Ronnie Pritchett, of Plymouth and formerly of Creswell, reported that a sizable number attended morning worship services at Scuppernon Church of Christ, with the reunion following in the church fellowship hall.

Carol Lawrence Vidales (also historian of the group) of Raleigh presided over the session; minutes of the 1992 meeting were made available to the group in printed form by the secretary, Catherine Reaves of High Point. Those minutes, said Pritchett, included a listing of marriages, births and deaths among family members as well as memorials to deceased persons since the last reunion.

Ms. Vidales reported on the progress made on the writing of the Bateman family history; a synopsis of genealogical work on the family history which dates back to 1694 was presented in written form by the president.

Incoming officers are: President: J. Haywood Swain and Nina Sexton Swain; Vice President: Thyra Howett Smith; Secretary: Catherine Reaves; Treasurer, Hilton O. Chesson. About 90 family members attended the reunion. (For information, inquire of Hilton O. Chesson, Creswell, NC 27928.)

Patricia A. BLEND is seeking assistance in her research into the SLADE family of Plymouth.
